

QATAR GOODWOOD FESTIVAL PRESENTED BY VISIT QATAR

DATES: 28 JULY - 1 AUGUST 2026

Qatar Goodwood Festival presented by Visit Qatar, popularly known as Glorious Goodwood, is a sporting and social highlight of the British summer season. It is a perfect place for partners to engage potential new customers. Our guests predominately fall into the two most upmarket audience groups: 'Affluent Achievers' (over-indexing by 91.01% compared to the UK average) and 'Rising Prosperity'.

Tuesday's top-tier racing includes the £500,000 Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup as well as the best seven furlong specialists going head-to-head in the £300,000 HKJC World Pool Lennox Stakes. Wednesday sees a £1 million prize awarded in the Visit Qatar Sussex Stakes, one of Europe's most valuable races over a mile. Thursday – Ladies' Day – is host to the £600,000 Qatar Nassau Stakes. Friday's exhilarating action focuses on King George Day and Saturday features the historic Coral Stewards Cup, a six-furlong cavalry charge.

On the evening of Ladies' Day, special guests attend the legendary Regency Ball in Goodwood House. The ball winds back the clock to the early 19th Century, inviting distinguished guests to dine bathed in candlelight before a traditional torch-lit match race is held in the park surrounding the house. The celebration continues with live music from a fabulous act.

Goodwood has played host to the Sport of Kings for over 200 years. Even before those days when ‘Glorious Goodwood’ became a firm fixture in the English summer season, there was The Charlton Hunt. The earliest recorded foxhunt in the country, The Charlton Hunt was famed for superb sport – so much so that it persuaded the 1st Duke of Richmond to make nearby Goodwood his home. Goodwood’s centuries-long tradition of sharing sporting passions has inspired The Charlton Hunt at the Racecourse.
